STRUCTURED PHOTOGRAPHIC EXPRESSIVE LANGUAGE TEST 3 (SPELT®- 3)

The SPELT-3 includes 54 full color photographs of everyday situations and objects paired with simple verbal questions and statements to elicit specific morphological and syntactical structures. It allows for analysis of specific language structures that may not occur in spontaneous language samples. The child's strengths and weaknesses can be readily identified. Test items target the child's use of MORPHOLOGY (preposition, plural, possessive noun and pronoun, reflexive pronoun, subject pronoun, direct/indirect object, present progressive, regular and irregular past, future, contractible/uncontractible copula, contractible/uncontractible auxiliary) and SYNTAX (negative, conjoined sentence, "Wh" question, interrogative reversal, negative infinitive phrase, propositional complement, relative clause, and front embedded clause). Administration time: 15 to 20 minutes. Ages: 4-0 through 9-11.

A study by Plante and Vance examined the evidence for using the SPELT-3 to diagnose language impairment and found, "... that the data provide empirical support for the use of the SPELT-3 for the purpose of differentiating between children with normal language and those with impaired language." LSHSS, 36, 103-115.

FEATURES OF THE SPELT®- 3

- Standard scores, confidence intervals, percentile ranks, percentile bands and test-age equivalents are provided for females and males, ages 4 through 9-11.
- Normative tables are based on a national sample of over 1800 children from the four geographical areas specified by the U.S. Census Bureau.
- A chapter on African American English and scoring guide are provided by Nola T. Radford, Ph.D.
- Reliability and validity studies are reported.

STRUCTURED PHOTOGRAPHIC EXPRESSIVE LANGUAGE TEST-PRESCHOOL 2 (SPELT®- P 2)

The SPELT-P 2 includes 44 full color photographs of everyday situations and objects paired with simple verbal questions and statements to elicit specific morphological and syntactical structures. It allows for analysis of specific language structures that may not occur in spontaneous language samples. This new edition targets 40 items using 44 photographs to probe the young child's ability to generate early developing morphological and syntactical forms. The child's strengths and weaknesses can be readily identified. Target structures include prepositions, articles, plurals, possessive nouns and pronouns, subject pronouns, auxiliary verbs, copulas, present participles, past tense, third person markers, as well as negatives, conjoined sentence, "wh" question, interrogative reversal, infinitive phrase, propositional complement, relative clause, and front embedded clause. Administration time: 15 to 20 minutes. Ages: 3-0 through 5-11.

A study by Plante and Vance examined the diagnostic accuracy, convergent validity, and divergent validity of SPELT-P2. "The empirical evidence supports use of the SPELT-P2 as a valid measure for correctly identifying the presence or absence of language impairment in 4-and 5- year-old preschool children." LSHSS, 40, 150-160.

FEATURES OF THE SPELT®- P 2

- Normative tables are based on a national sample of over 1700 children from the four geographical areas specified by the U.S. Census Bureau.

THE STRUCTURED PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTICULATION TEST FEATURING DUDSBERRY® (SPAT-D 3)

Strong quantitative and qualitative features; exceptional tool for assessing production in complex contexts; excellent resource for use with linguistically diverse speakers

More than 35 years since the introduction of Dudsberry at the 1988 ASHA Convention in Boston, the popular articulation test, The Structured Photographic Articulation Test, has once again been revised to provide clinicians with not only a quantitative tool but, in addition, a way to gather important qualitative information to assess the speech production skills of children ages 3 to 10. Results of the various quantitative and qualitative aspects of the SPAT-D 3 can be used for qualifying the child for services as well as developing goals and monitoring progress and determining dismissal.

The 5 year development process resulted in the new edition of the Structured Photographic Articulation Test, the SPAT-D 3, providing normative data based on a sample of over 2,400 children reflecting the most recent U.S. Censuses. Quantitative analysis of 65 singleton consonants and 17 consonant blends at the word level are elicited by 36 color photographs of Dudsberry, the Golden Retriever, interacting with objects which contain the target phonemes allowing for calculation of standard scores, confidence intervals, percentile ranks, and percentile bands. Determining consonant inventory, percent of consonants correct, word shape, and presence of phonological patterns as well as evaluating vowel production provide a qualitative analysis at the word level.

Additional qualitative features of the SPAT-D 3 include consistency in sound production and intelligibility in connected speech utilizing the story of "Dudsberry's Day at School," two Multisyllabic Word Screeners (BASIC & ADVANCED) for qualitative assessment of consonants in complex contexts to aid in gathering data regarding the stability of sound production in more complex sound contexts and goal formulation for older children, and resources to provide an in-depth guide for the influence on English production of the 6 most prevalent languages/dialect spoken in the United States to help determine a speech difference versus a true disorder.

NEW FEATURES:

- Assessment of Complex Contexts empirically linked to reading deficits
 - Most words used in standardized assessment tools are one- to two-syllables; although appropriate for diagnosing a speech sound disorder, these contexts may not be as useful when considering discharge
 - Two levels of Multisyllabic Word Screeners to help evaluate whether children who have received services for speech sound disorders (phonological or articulation) and appear ready for discharge have the phonological skills necessary to meet grade level expectations set forth by the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) in Speaking and Listening as well as Reading and Writing:
 - BASIC: Ages 5-7 (picture stimuli)
 - 25 target words
 - 17-3 syllable; 7-4 syllable; 1 5 syllable
 - ADVANCED: Age 7 and older (printed word lists)
 - 65 target words
 - Arranged by theme
 - Can be used to create a unique word list for specific children based on their sound challenges
- The SPAT-D 3 manual provides an in-depth guide for the influence on English production of the 6 most prevalent languages/dialect spoken in the United States to help determine a speech difference versus a true disorder
 - Languages/dialect
 - African American English
 - Arabic
 - Mandarin
 - Spanish
 - Tagalog
 - Philippine
 - General background on each language/dialect
 - Presentation of shared phonemes and general patterns of typical deviation to aid in differentiating typical versus atypical influence on English speech
 - Specific examples and considerations for interpreting performance on the SPAT-D 3 for each targeted language/dialect

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Normative tables for ages 3;0-9;11 are based on a national sample of over 2400 children from the four geographical areas specified by the current U.S. Census bureau.
- ASHA certified clinicians tested children from rural, suburban, and urban areas.
- Thirty-six 4" x 6" real life color photographs of Dudsberry in a photo book serve as stimuli to spontaneous elicit the word level production of 65 single consonants and 17 consonant blends.
- Standard scores, confidence intervals, percentile ranks, percentile bands and test-age equivalents for females and males, ages 3 to 10 provided.
- Validity, reliability, sensitivity and specificity, positive and negative likelihood ratios, and bias data included and support the use of the SPAT-D 3 as part of the assessment protocol for a child suspected of a speech sound disorder.
- Color coded response form enables the examiner to immediately analyze articulation errors according to syllabic function and manner of articulation. No whole word transcription is necessary.
- Response form includes sections for recording consonant inventory, percentage of consonants correct (PCC) and PCC-Revised, word shapes, and vowels inventory.
- Common phonological processes can be assessed.
- Phoneme production in connected speech can be additionally assessed utilizing the story of "Dudsberry's Day at School" (8 photos) to determine consistency in sound production across contexts (word-connected speech).
- Multisyllabic Word Screeners target syllable fidelity and stress in addition to sound production/stability.
- Separate response form for Multisyllabic Word Screeners provided.

ADMINISTRATION TIME:

- Administration of the quantitative (standardized) portion of SPAT-D 3 takes approximately 15 minutes. The color coded response form allows for quick and easy scoring.
- Administration of optional qualitative portions of the test will vary based on unique profile of the child and the clinician's purpose in administering the testing.

The newly redesigned Spanish SPELT®-3 not only captures the best features of the Spanish SPELT®-Preschool and the Spanish SPELT®-2, but it elicits additional morphological and syntactical structures. It also samples the child's ability to use pragmatically appropriate language for various purposes. Utilizing the 13 large photographs, clinicians are able to identify areas of strength and weakness in the Spanish language of children ages 4-0 through 9-11. Children can readily identify with the scenes set in familiar surroundings (e.g., school, store, park), which facilitates responses. Normative data for both age and grade are based on children from across the country and from various Hispanic backgrounds. The manual summarizes early Spanish language development and provides an extensive resource for evaluating the responses of children from various Hispanic backgrounds. Based on the research available on language development in Spanish speakers, the content and format of the Spanish SPELT®-3 offer an efficient way to obtain data to aid in determining if a Spanish-speaking ELL student might have a language-based difficulty. A "must have" for the battery of probes to help decipher language difference from disorder in children whose first language is Spanish. Administration time: 15 to 20 minutes. Ages: 4-0 through 9-11.

THE TEST OF INTEGRATED LANGUAGE & LITERACY SKILLS (TILLS™)

The Test of Integrated Language & Literacy Skills™ (TILLS™) is the reliable, valid assessment professionals need to test oral and written language skills in students ages 6-18 years. TILLS is a comprehensive, norm-referenced test that has been standardized for three purposes: to identify language/literacy disorders, to document patterns of relative strengths and weaknesses, and to track changes in language and literacy skills over time. Fifteen extensively researched subtests are included:

Vocabulary Awareness, Phonemic Awareness, Story Retelling, Non-word Repetition, Non-word Spelling, Listening Comprehension, Reading Comprehension, Following Directions, Delayed Story Retelling, Non-word Reading, Reading Fluency, Written Expression (yields 3 scores), Social Communication, Digit Span Forward, and Digit Span Backward. TILLS tested sensitivity and specificity across the full age range covered by the test. Each subtest meets strong psychometric standards using scientific evidence gathered in pilot studies and field trial, and a standardization study with more than 1,200 students. Diagnostic accuracy data are broken down into nine different "age bands" meaningful to the development of language and literacy skills. Administration time: 90 minutes or less. Ages: 6-18.

TEST OF NARRATIVE LANGUAGE Second Edition (TNL-2)

The Test of Narrative Language-Second Edition (TNL-2) is a norm-referenced test that measures children's narrative language abilities (i.e., children's ability to understand and tell stories). Narration is an important aspect of spoken language, not usually measured by oral-language tests, that provides a critical foundation for literacy. The TNL-2 enables clinicians to assess important aspects of narrative language without having to transcribe children's stories. It measures the ability to comprehend and produce three types of stories: a script, a personal narrative, and a fictional narrative. The TNL-2 is a natural complement to other standardized tests that use contrived formats to assess components of oral language, and it is especially useful for diagnosing language-based learning disabilities.

Administration Time: 15-20 minutes. Ages: 4-0 through 15-11.

Complete TNL-2 Kit Includes: Examiner's Manual, Picture Book, and 25 Examiner Record Booklets, all in a sturdy box.

LANGUAGE PROCESSING TEST - 3 ELEMENTARY (LPT-3)

Use the Language Processing Test 3 Elementary (LPT-3) to diagnose language processing disorders that might be easily missed in traditional language tests. This test evaluates the ability to attach increasingly more meaning to information received and then formulate an expressive response. The skills evaluated begin with simple tasks and progressively increase the language processing demand placed upon the student. This hierarchical approach ensures evaluation of prerequisite skills for increased processing demand. There are two pretests (Labeling, Stating Functions) and six subtests (Associations, Categorization, Similarities, Differences, Multiple Meanings, Attributes). Each subsequent subtest builds on the skills previously evaluated. The test items are valid clinical indicators of the ability to attach meaning to language. Norms for the LPT-3 are based on a nationally representative sample of 1,313 children. Raw scores are converted to age equivalents, percentile ranks, and standard scores. Administration Time: 35 minutes. Ages: 5 through 11 years

Single-word vocabulary tests reveal only a small portion of a student's vocabulary know-how. This powerful test delves into the expressive vocabulary and semantic skills that affect learning. The WORD Test 3 Elementary assesses a student's ability to recognize and express semantic attributes critical to vocabulary growth and language competency. Current research clearly supports the impact each task on this test has on academic and reading competency. SLPs will understand how students attach meaning to words and why they might be struggling in the classroom. The six subtests of The WORD Test 3 Elementary measure skills that correlate with word mastery, reading comprehension, and overall academic success. Subtests include: Associations, Synonyms, Semantic Absurdities, Antonyms, Definitions, Flexible Word Use. The test was standardized on 1,302 subjects. Administration Time: 30 minutes. Ages: 6 through 11 years.

FUNCTIONAL COMMUNICATION PROFILE - REVISED (FCP-R)

The FCP-R assists the SLP and the team in considering the unique aspects of communication and the diversity among individuals with developmental and acquired delays. It addresses all communication possibilities and is not limited to oral language expression. The FCP-R yields an overall inventory of the individual's communication abilities, mode of communication (e.g., verbal, sign, nonverbal, augmentative), and degree of independence. This is a criterion-referenced assessment. Clients are assessed and rated in the major skills categories of communication through direct observation, teacher and caregiver reports and one on one testing. The FCP-R is appropriate for individuals who range between mild and profound deficits. Subtests include: Sensory/Motor, Attentiveness, Receptive Language, Expressive Language, Pragmatic/Social Language, Speech, Voice, Oral, Fluency, Non-Oral Communication. Administration Time: 45 - 90 minutes.

Ages: 3 years through Adult.

EARLY FUNCTIONAL COMMUNICATION PROFILE

Assess the pivotal preverbal communication skills children need to develop functional communication. The Early Functional Communication Profile is sensitive to small, subtle changes in joint attention, social interaction, and communicative intent. The targeted skills are hallmarks of atypical development in the preverbal child. The profile measures subtle, functional changes in nonverbal communication skills in children with severe disabilities along with larger gains in children with moderate disabilities. Use it to gather information that will help determine a starting point in therapy and show progress over time. The Early Functional Communication Profile is a criterion-referenced tool. As such, it does not supply age or number scores. The test's precise descriptive measures tell you what the child CAN do and how he/she responds to different types of prompts. Subtests assess a variety of skills in the three primary areas of preverbal skills. Skills Assessed: Joint Attention (requesting objects, receptive language), Social Interaction (turn-taking, response to greetings), Communicative Intent (requesting continuation of actions, requesting assistance, and protesting). Administration Time: 30-45 minutes. Ages: 2 through 10 years.

DYNAMIC EVALUATION OF MOTOR SPEECH SKILL (DEMSS) MANUAL

Dynamic Evaluation of Motor Speech Skill (DEMSS) is a criterion-referenced, dynamic assessment designed to determine to what degree motor speech impairment is contributing to a child's severely impaired speech production. Developed by one of the leading experts on childhood apraxia of speech (CAS) and an expert on test development, this tool is an efficient way to assess children who have significant speech impairment, especially reduced phonemic and/or phonetic inventories, vowel or prosodic errors, poor speech intelligibility, and/or little to no verbal communication. Use the DEMSS to diagnose severe speech sound disorders in children 3 and older, facilitate, confirm, or rule out a diagnosis of CAS, estimate the severity of a child's disorder and prognosis, inform treatment goals, and gain information about effective methods of cueing during treatment. For each of the 60 items on the DEMSS, the SLP provides a verbal model, asks the child for a direct imitation, and follows up with more cues and supports if the child's first attempt is incorrect. Scoring considers overall accuracy in producing the word, vowel accuracy, consistency of production, and accuracy of prosodic features of the word. The manual includes a keycode that unlocks access to the video tutorial and free unlimited DEMSS forms, downloadable online. 112 pages. Administration Time: 15-25 minutes. Ages: 3 and up.

These areas underpin the development of effective listening and communication skills, and are critical to the development of higher order language skills, including literacy. The TAPS-4 has 11 subtests organized into 3 indices. Phonological Processing: word pair discrimination, phonological deletion, phonological blending, syllabic blending. Auditory Memory: number memory forward and reversed, word memory, sentence memory. Listening Comprehension: processing oral directions (with and without background noise), auditory comprehension. SOCIAL LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT TEST - Elementary: NORMATIVE UPDATE (SLDT-E:NU)

The Social Language Development Test-Elementary: Normative Update (SLDT-E: NU) assesses language-based skills of social interpretation and interaction with peers, the skills found to be most predictive of social language development. Specifically, it measures the language required to appropriately infer and express what another person is thinking or feeling within a social context, to make multiple interpretations, take mutual perspectives, and negotiate with and support their peers. These tasks reflect the developmental refinement of social language comprehension and expression and differentiate typically developing children from those with autism spectrum disorder. The test has four subtests, which require students to make inferences, interpret photographed scenes, and explain how they would resolve problems with peers. Administration Time: 45 minutes. Ages: 6 to 11.

TEST OF SEMANTIC REASONING (TOSR)

Semantic reasoning requires both development of word knowledge depth and the use of inductive and deductive reasoning skills. The TOSR assesses breadth (the number of lexical entries one has) and depth (the extent of semantic representation for each known word) of vocabulary knowledge without taxing expressive language skills, providing an important new resource for individuals assessing children with possible language and literacy deficits. Breadth and depth are both important for literacy as breadth is related to early decoding, and depth to later comprehension. The test includes 90 sets of four high-quality color photographs that reflect a vocabulary word in a variety of contexts. The individual must use semantic reasoning to analyze the pictures and then select the single word from a choice of four that best represents the multiple contexts of the word represented by all the images. Administration Time: 20 minutes. Scoring Time: 5 minutes. Ages: 7 to 17 years.

The items included at each age level are considered the most representative of the developmental skills at that age, with results reflecting the skill level that has been mastered by the child. Severity rating guidelines help to interpret the results and confidently communicate the severity of the child's delay. Suggestions for case history questions and a reproducible Parent Questionnaire are provided in English and Spanish. Administration Time: Varies. Ages: Birth to 36 months.

EVALUATING ACQUIRED SKILLS IN COMMUNICATION - 3 (EASIC-3)

Evaluating Acquired Skills in Communication-Third Edition (EASIC-3) is a five-level inventory developed for use with children who are developmentally disabled, have autism, or have moderate to severe cognitive and language disorders. It provides assessment items in the areas of prelinguistic skills, semantics, syntax, morphology, and pragmatics. Clinicians may select the inventories that are most appropriate for the child: Prelanguage, Receptive I, Expressive I, Receptive II, or Expressive II. Each inventory is organized into skill clusters ordered from least to most difficult per developmental data. Performance is summarized on a profile which can be used up to 5 times for each child, such that a student's growth may be recorded over time. Items are scored by noting if skills are accomplished, emerging, or not yet developed and may be observed, cued, or imitated. The examiner will need to gather a variety of common objects and toys to use in administration. The Developmental Age Charts and Goals and Objectives appendices of the manual are key for interpreting results and making recommendations for IEP programming. Administration Time: 15-30 minutes per inventory. Developmental Ages: 3 months to 6 years.

THAT'S LIFE! LANGUAGE CARDS

That's Life! Language Cards offer practical content for helping adolescents develop age-appropriate language skills. The content reflects the vocabulary and language demands of junior high and high school classrooms and is organized into three major areas: semantics (antonyms, synonyms, categories, similarities and differences, multiple meanings, idioms, and homonyms), syntax/morphology (past tense verbs, discriminating verb tenses, pronouns, verbs and adverbs, and plurals), and pragmatics (stating opinions, discussion topics, Who am I?, Persuade Me, and role-playing). Stimulus items within each skill area (e.g., antonyms, past tense verbs, etc.) are presented in a hierarchical order. The cards are written stimuli only; some students or clients will need supplementation from the clinician with visuals or other supports. Use the cards for direct instruction, to launch discussions, as stimuli in games, in learning centers, and for independent study. Each card has four to ten stimulus items. Ages: 12 - 18 years.
